Founded in 1981 and located in Los Angeles' Exposition Park, the California African American Museum's mission is to research, collect, preserve, and interpret for public enrichment the history, art and culture of African Americans with an emphasis on California and the western United States. Commemorating the 150th Anniversary of the American Civil War (1861-1865), the museum's current exhibit features remarkable photographic portraits of African American soldiers and sailors who took part in this epic chapter of our nation's history. The Department of Fair Employment and Housing (DFEH) is California's civil rights agency, which protects Californians from employment, housing and public accommodation discrimination, and hate violence. The DFEH investigates, conciliates, mediates, and prosecutes violations of the Fair Employment and Housing Act (FEHA), Unruh Civil Rights Act, and Ralph Civil Rights Act. See www.dfeh.ca.gov.
